Undergraduate

From January 2018, Robert Gordon University will offer entry to a broad range of undergraduate programmes through our expanded International Year 1 pathway portfolio, offered via International College at Robert Gordon University (ICRGU).

Benefits of the starting the International Year 1 in January

- ✓ The duration of the International Year 1 is 9 months – from mid January until early September
- ✓ Classes are taught over the summer months to lead seamlessly from successful completion of International Year 1 to continuing onto Year 2 of your chosen degree programme
- ✓ The International Year 1 has the same learning outcome as those students studying the first year undergraduate programme at the University, it simply offers an alternative start date for your convenience
- ✓ You will benefit from a tailored university level study skills module and will have access to all on-campus facilities
- ✓ Successful applicants will have access to Robert Gordon University Merit based scholarships worth £2000

Academic Term

International Year 1 - Semester 1
22 January 2018	4 May 2018
International Year 1 - Semester 2
7 May 2018	31 August 2018
Academic Year 2 Begins
17 September 2018

Who Can Apply for the International Year 1 in January?

You must be classed by the University as an international fee payer for tuition fee payment, and fall into any one of the following categories:

- You have missed the application deadline for the September 2017 intake
- You were made an offer to study at Robert Gordon University for the September 2017 intake, but unable to meet the deadline to submit the required supporting documents for a Confirmation of Acceptance for Studies (CAS)
- You have not met the academic requirement for the September 2017 intake
- You have received a conditional offer on meeting English Language requirement, and would benefit from a 10 week or 13 week English Language programme. The Pre-Sessional English programme for January starts in October 2017
