

Photocopying and scanning information

Photocopying multiple copies for handouts and course packs under the CLA Licence

The University has signed the Basic Photocopying and Scanning Copyright Licensing Agency Licence. This permits staff members to make multiple copies of published print material within certain limitations for handing out to students or for inclusion within course packs.

The published print material must be owned by the University e.g. in Library stock, not a personal copy. Alternatively a copyright cleared copy must be obtained via the Inter-library loan service: this can be done by contacting the Library Service.

Photocopies within the following limits can be made for the number of students in the module:

- Periodicals - one copy of one article from any one issue of a journal
- A book - one chapter or 5% of a book whichever is the greater
- Conference proceedings – one conference paper from a set of proceedings
- A short story or poem from an anthology (not exceeding 10 pages)
- A whole report from a single case of a judicial proceedings Or 5% whatever is greater

Some publishers do not allow reproduction of their works and details of these can be found on the CLA's Excluded Categories and Works Listing

Permission from rights holders for any copying above these limits or from published material not covered by the licence must be gained before copying is undertaken.

What is not included under the CLA licence?

- Printed music, including the words
- Maps and charts
- Newspapers
- Any work in which the copyright holder has expressly stipulated that "permission is not granted for photocopying under licences issued by the Copyright Licensing Agency"
- Material on the Copyright Licensing Agency's Excluded Lists (as above)
- Unpublished material e.g. theses, dissertations, assignments and ephemera such as company reports, retail supplier catalogues, in-house brochures and pamphlets
- Electronic material
