Introducing Aberdeen City and Robert Gordon University

Aberdeen is Scotland's third largest city, celebrated for its proximity to the sea and its famous sparkling architecture. Living and studying in Aberdeen means you will be part of an energetic city with 25,000 students from across the globe. You can enjoy unrivalled food and drink experiences, year-round festivals and events, art galleries, museums, a golden beach, parks and gardens and even picture-perfect old towns.

Thanks to its position in Scotland the opportunity for outdoor adventure is vast too. Try out paddle boarding through sea caves, surfing city centre waves, hiking in the Cairngorms National Park, hitting the slopes at Snowsports Centres or even conquering challenging cycling terrains.

Robert Gordon University is an exciting blend of the traditional and the contemporary. Founded in 1729 the University has a long history in education, yet in 2013 it became the UK's most modern campus with the opening of its £170 Million campus development in Aberdeen.

RGU is famed for being an innovative, accessible, impactful and professionally minded university. RGU's applied learning, industry-centric approach, modern facilities and contemporary course content, enable students to prepare for successful careers in a variety of professional fields.

“The thing that surprises me about RGU is, for HESA (Higher Education Statistics Agency) in the UK, RGU not only have been well-known university regarding to energy, but also is the first rank of the top university for graduate jobs. Aberdeen is a cosmopolitan environment. Because I studied in Thai school and Thai university, especially I’ve never studied aboard or international course before. So, this is a great opportunity to participate with new friends from many countries in the world and learn various cultures. I think I am quite a lucky girl. I have very interesting part-time job that is DJ in an international karaoke bar. I saw many RGU alumni getting a nice job in many big worldwide companies. So now the thing that I can do is study hard and keep updating.”
